

Applications

Fibrwrap® systems are primarily used as externally bonded or near surface mounted additions to existing structural elements. Types of elements include columns, beams, slabs, walls, tanks, stacks, silos, pipelines and structural connections.

Applications by Segment

Buildings

Transportation & Bridges

Industrial

Water & Wastewater Structures

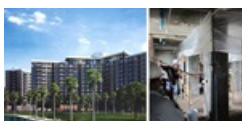

Marine Structures

Blast Mitigation

Applications by Type of Element

Columns

Beam Strengthening

Slab Strengthening

Wall Strengthening

Tanks, Silos and Chimneys

Structural Connections